With the decline of Buddhism in the region the traces of the stupa and monastery faded away. About the religious importance and background of Kaniska stupa, Dr. Amjad apprised participants of the lecture that in March 1909, when digging had reached the centre of the base of stupa, D. B Spooner, an American archaeologist first Curator of Peshawar Museum, made a sensational discovery that stirred the archeological world. -APP evolve. Our research finds that it is the search engines, Google, Baidu and Yandex that lead this field because they have been doing it the longest. Everyone else is scrambling as fast as they can to catch up and are making an increasing amount of noise at the same time. We expect to see feverish M&A activity in 2017 as AI currently takes so long to create that many players may feel they have no other choice than to acquire. AI mission statement goes:

In support of the mission to benefit people and society, the Partnership on AI intends to conduct research, organize discussions, share insights, provide thought leadership, consult with relevant third parties, respond to questions from the public and media, and create educational material that advance the understanding of AI technologies .

14 artists display non-conventional odes to love at Sanat Gallery

OUR CORRESPONDENT

People have forgotten the artistry behind composing a love letter.

They have forgotten the joy of reading and re-reading these letters now that pledges of love are made over text message or Whatsapp. The dignity that the letter held has been forgotten and people no longer cherish its impact or acknowledge it importance.

As many as 14 artists ex hibited their work at Sana Gallery Tuesday evening a an exhibition, titled 'Lov Letters', and shared thei thoughts on writing lov letters. From recollection of Farezeh Syed's decease grandmother and a small old rug bearing the name o artist Mohsin Shafi to Inaan Zafar's tribute to the departed by collecting sand from thei graves, all the works on dis play gave a new meaning to the word love.

Speaking at the event, Shafi
